

Certified Security Leadership Officer

Modality: On Demand

Duration: 6 Hours

About this course:

The Certified Security Leadership Officer course provides essential up to date information and skills related to current security issues, information technology, and best practices in the field. The course covers up aspects such as risk management, security management, information security and encryption, which are required to clear the Certified Security Leadership Officer exam. Moreover, the course also provides knowledge regarding access controls, operations security, network security, incident handling, and evidence.

After completing the Certified Security Leadership Officer course, an individual will be able to efficiently and effectively manage information technology security projects.

An individual having Certified Security Leadership Officer certification and working as an IT manager/Professional can easily earn up to $127,854 annually.

Course Objective

The Certified Security Leadership Officer course objective is to provide information and knowledge regarding the following.

- Encryption
- Security Management
- Information Security – Access Control Concepts
- Risk Management
- Incident Handling and Evidence
- Network Security
- Operations Security

Audience:

- IT Professionals interested in core IT operations and service management can take up the course.

Prerequisite:

- There is no pre-requisite for the Certified Security Leadership Officer course.

Suggested prerequisite course:

- Project Team Management

- Executive Strategy and Management

Course Outline:

- Course Introduction
- Module 01 - Security Management
- Module 02 - Risk Management
- Module 03 - Encryption
- Module 04 - InfoSec - Access Control Concepts
- Module 05 - Incident Handling and Evidence
- Module 06 - Operations Security
- Module 07 - Knowing Network Security